

District Students with DC One Card Can Renew 10-Trip Metrobus Pass at Giant Food Stores

Starting Monday, March 4, 2013, District of Columbia students with a valid and active DC One Card can renew their 10-trip Metrobus pass at participating Giant Food stores until Monday, July 1, 2013.

Students must present their DC One Card and have at least one unused bus trip on an active pass in order to renew a 10-trip bus pass. Students can only purchase one pass at a time. If the student does not have an active pass on his or her DC One Card, then the student cannot purchase a new pass at the Giant Store.

The Giant Stores participating in this 4-month pilot program are:

- Giant Food - 1050 Brentwood Road NE, Washington, D.C. 20018
- Giant Food - 1345 Park Road NW, Washington, D.C. 20010
- Giant Food - 4303 Connecticut Avenue NW, Washington, D.C. 20008
- Giant Food - 1535 Alabama Ave SE, Washington, D.C. 20032

If the pilot is successful, DDOT and WMATA will issue an announcement to continue the program. For more information about this pilot program, please visit <http://ddot.dc.gov/schooltransitsubsidy> or contact DDOT's Transit Subsidy Program at (202) 673-1740.

